Results of your language assessment in English

Maria Mitova

The overall level obtained in the language assessment (English) is: C1 according to the CEFR

C1

You can understand long, complex speeches and texts and identify implicit, abstract and finer shades of meaning.

Your detailed English language levels in the assessed language competences are:

Reading Comprehension

C2 You can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialized articles and literary works.

Listening Comprehension

C1 You can understand extended speech, including idiomatic and dialectal jargon, even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implicitly and not explicitly expressed. You can understand televised programmes and films without too much effort.

Grammar

C1 Only on extremely rare occasions will the use of a grammatical structure interfere with your comprehension of any written text.

Vocabulary

C1 Your good command of vocabulary on a broad range of general, academic, professional and leisure topics enables you to understand most written texts.

The results of your language assessment do not prevent you from taking part in the Erasmus+ mobility period. The results according to the CEFR are accessible to you and your Higher Education sending institution or EVS coordinating organisation. For Higher Education students, the results are not communicated to the receiving institution/organisation. For EVS volunteers, the results are not communicated to the other organisation(s) in your project. However, you are free to send the results to them.

At the end of your Erasmus+ mobility period, you will be required to complete another language assessment to check the progress made in your language competences during your stay abroad. The European Commission uses aggregated data of the language assessment results for statistical purposes.

Take the opportunity to complete your European Language Passport and thus improve your CV.
